18.5 REPORT 5 – DEPUTIES HISTORICAL AFFAIRS – WRITING OF MINUTES

Die Deputate Historiese Sake wil die volgende onder die Sinode se aandag bring oor notulering van vergaderings. In die argief, betreffende navorsing, word toenemend probleme ondervind met Notules wat “te bondig” of selfs net puntsgewys genotuleer is. Notules behoort genoegsame aanduiding van die wese van die inhoud van die bespreking te bevat en moet ook die besluitneming verwoord. Notules wat slegs verwys na ‘n punt wat goedgekeur is, sonder die nodige beskrywing van die bespreking, het min historiese waarde vir navorsing of enige nut ten opsigte van regsangeleenthede. Die Sinode word versoek om oor die aangeleentheid ‘n besluit te neem.	The Deputies Historical Matters wants to bring the following to the attention of the Synod regarding the minuting of meetings. In the archive, concerning research, increasing problems have been experienced regarding Minutes that are “too brief” or merely in bulleted format. Minutes should contain an adequate indication of the essence of the content of the discussion and should also convey the final decision. Minutes referring only to a point that has been approved, without the necessary explanation of the discussion, have little historical value for research or any use in terms of legal matters. The Synod is requested to decide on the matter.
